Rethinking Leadership

The School for Ministry offers an annual opportunity to share with colleagues in Ministry. It focusses on a key aspect of ministry practice. This year, the week will engage with the latest thinking about collaborative leadership, the leadership that is required to drive adaptive change, using systems analysis as a tool for leadership, and practical skills in active leadership.

Keynote speakers will come from New River Leadership Institute and UnitingCareWest.

Naomi Nash is the CEO and lead consultant with New River Leadership. She is the co-author of Rethinking Leadership: building capacity for positive change (see <http://rethinkingleadership.com.au/>) Naomi is experienced in working with churches, schools, social welfare agencies, and executive leaders, to explore leadership and cultural change. Naomi has a passion for entrepreneurship and mentoring. She is an Honorary Associate of the University of Sydney School of Business Studies.

Amanda Hunt is the CEO of UnitingCareWest. She has over 20 years' experience in the Community Sector, with expertise in building capacity through leading innovative, sustainable services. Amanda is committed to strong advocacy for the rights of vulnerable members of our society. She has worked with the Cerebral Palsy Association, National Disability Services (WA), Inclusion WA, the Gowrie WA, and Mission Australia. Whilst she was the Executive General Manager – Self Directed Services at Anglicare WA, she worked closely with New River Leadership at implementing cultural and leadership change.

Workshops will also be led by local practitioners in Ministry, exploring ways that we can harness the insights from Rethinking Leadership into local church contexts.

This week provides the annual School for Ministry for Ministers and Pastors in leadership positions in their Congregation, School or Agency. It provides a strong basis for each Minister's Continuing Education Program.

The week is also open to lay people who exercise a leadership role in the local Congregation. Lay Preachers, Lay Presiders, Church Council Members, and Committee Convenors are especially encouraged to attend and to consider how they might strengthen their own leadership skills and capacity.

Financial assistance is available towards the cost of the week. Please contact Kerry George at cedal@wa.uca.org.au or call 08 9260 9800 for information and application form.

KEYNOTE #1 Rethinking Leadership – The complex challenges we face.

KEYNOTE #2 Rethinking Change – Building agility in people and teams.

KEYNOTE #3 Rethinking Leadership – Self Awareness and foundations for leadership Practice.

Afternoon workshops will include

- Mapping complex change and designing a response.
- Building presence and purpose as foundations for leadership.
